

Ed Neilan Wins U. S. C. Journalism Scholarship

Roy L. French, Trojan Journalism Director, Makes Announcement

Roy L. French, director of the University of Southern California School of Journalism, announced this week that Ed Neilan, editor of the Federalist, has been named as recipient of U. S. C.'s four-year scholarship in journalism.

For the first time in the history of this award, a Hamilton student has been so honored. The scholarship competition is open to high school students from Santa Maria to San Diego.

Besides serving his school as a member of the Green Key Club, Senior Service Society, Lettermans Club and president of the Barons, this ambitious boy finds time to be Sports Editor of the Culver City Star-News and to take part in football and track.

Annie Yip, student of John Francis Polytechnic High School, has been selected as the girl scholarship winner. Each year, an outstanding young man and woman are chosen for the coveted award.

The scholarship awards will be presented on U. S. C.'s Twenty-fifth Annual Newspaper Day, on Saturday, May 20.

Guests from Hamilton, on Newspaper Day, in addition to Ed Neilan, will be Debbie Brandmeyer, Joyce Cleave, Peper Spitzer, and Jim Hughes, staff members; and Mrs. Anne von Poederoyen, Federalist adviser.

Fairfax, Yank Gymnasts Perform at Fed Show

Amid applause and cheers, Hamilton's mighty gym team made its final appearance in an exhibition presented for Fed subscribers, Thursday, 4A and 4B.

Besides presenting Yank gymnasts, Coach Turley secured several top athletes from Fairfax's Western League championship team; Bob Selzer, Al Goutin, and Herb Strikstein, on the rings, long horse, and rings respectively. Also, Alumnus Jerry Feniello, W'46, gave an amazing exhibition on the rings. Feniello placed second in the Junior A. A. U. recently.

Len Leopold, sports co-editor for the Federalist, announced the special events to the enthusiastic crowds which overflowed the gym.

Prominent Yanks Attend Annual Student Congress

Scores of Southern California students flocked to the Los Angeles City Hall last Friday and Saturday to attend the annual Student Congress.

Helen Gahagen Douglas, U. S. Congresswoman, was the guest speaker.

Hamilton sent students to act as senators, House representatives and pages. The Senate elected Bob Gordon president of the conference. Hamilton was the leader of the Independent Party and also received the best-speaker award.

Cotton Day Plans Now Under Way

Preparations for the eagerly-awaited Cotton Day scheduled for May 26 are well underway, with Lila Falstein, Girls' League vice-president, in charge.

The usual fourth period assembly program has been abandoned in favor of noon activity on the athletic field. A jazz concert by Hamilton's well-known swing band, and awards to the best-dressed and best-matched couple will contribute to the merriment.

SPORTS NIGHT!

Are you going? Where? Hamilton Gym! When? Tonight! Why? Hamilton Sports Nights are here again. Starts 6:30 p.m.

Under the sponsorship of Coach Bus Sutherland a great evening of "fun for all" has been planned. For two weeks student committees have been working out plans for first-rate entertainment; volleyball, ping-pong, basketball, ballroom and square dancing—practically anything you can think of has been arranged.

A Cappella Choir Performs Before C.C. Rotary Club

The traditional exchange of "songs for the Rotary" and "ice cream for the singers" was made Wednesday when the A Cappella choir, with its director, Mrs. Martha Abbott, visited the Westside Tennis club and presented a program to the Culver City Rotarians. Peggy Fortenberry accompanied and choir president, William Douglas, acted as official master of ceremonies.

Numbers were: "What Kinder Shoes" and "Dry Bones," featuring Shirley Ely's "one-man band"; "Cool Water," with soloist Jim Mitcheltree; "The Freeborn Speak"; and Fred Warring's arrangement of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," by Roy Ringwald, and "Onward Christian Soldiers" by Simian.

teria at night, is slated to begin at 8:30. Unique refreshments will be sold in the senior court.

Dressy cottons for the girls, and loud shirts for the fellows are the rule for the day with Jack Robinson's band setting the dance tempo.

A nearby yardage shop is offering two valuable prizes to needlewomen, one for a dress made in school, and one for a dress made at home.

Get your dress, your man, and your bid, gal; go to the Cotton Day Ball!

Gate Plan in Full Swing; No Disturbances Reported

Student Conduct Pleases Faculty

As the first week of the new open-gate program at Hamilton draws to a close, sponsors of the plan announce that to date the experiment is running smoothly and without mishap.

Student and faculty observers report that there have been no disturbances worthy of note, and Harold Rosemont, registrar, states that there has been no increase in tardiness to fifth period.

Joan Long, student body president, states, "We are keeping a close watch on cafeteria business and tardiness to fifth period, but so far everything has been very successful. I am sure that it will continue that way."

Mrs. Gertrude MacQueen, in charge of the complaint committee, remarks, "I am very happy, but not surprised, to see such good conduct on the part of Hamilton students."

Gloria Barsimentob Places Second In Oratorical Meet

Misses First by Three Points; Wins $100 Prize

Gloria Barsimentob placed second in the finals of the Herald-Express oratorical tournament last Tuesday night at Los Angeles City College. She was edged out by Don Squires of Venice High School by only three points. Gloria, who was presented with $100, states, "It was a wonderful experience and I had a lot of fun being in the contest."

As Gloria is now only in the eleventh grade at Hamilton, she will have another year to compete in contests, says Miss Muriel Duncan, her speech coach.

The other finalists besides Don Squires were Geraldine Moss of Catholic Girls' High, and Jane Claypool of Banning High.

The finals consisted of two divisions, the college and the high school. The U. S. C. band of 82 pieces gave a number of selections as part of the program.

A real ovation followed Gloria's speech at the preliminary contest, her opponents rushed to congratulate her when Dr. Paul Fisher, principal, announced the outcome. It was a real tribute to an outstanding young speaker, whose fine voice, thoughtful composition, and emotional appeal won all hearts.

Spanish Movies Hi-Lite Trip by Pan-Americans

The Pan-American Club made a theater trip to the Teatro Maya, Friday after school, going on the street car, speaking Spanish all the way.

The attraction at the Maya theater was a stage show with Mexican favorites, such as the "Hermanass Padilla," "Trio Calaveras," and the dancers "Las Cevillans," one of whom is a Hamilton graduate, Maria Vasquez. Maria was the Pan-American Club's first dance chairman.

Another feature of the show was two popular songs, sung in Spanish, "Tiro de Mulas," (Muletrain) and "Bolero de la Calle Main," (Main Street Shoe-shine Boy).

There was also a movie called "La Mentirosa" or (The Little Liar). It was an Argentinian picture of mystery and comedy.

The Pan-American Club was very fortunate in having an ex-officer of the club, Charles Rozaire, accompanying them. Along with Miss Anita Risdon, he helped the students translate some of the complications of the picture. Charles is a graduate student of U. C. L. A. School of Archeology. This summer he will be a member of the Peabody expedition in New Mexico.

Gum Consumption Reports Show 2475 lbs. Chewed Annually at Hami

Santa Barbara and all points east . . . attention! Official Geiger counter and gum tabulating machines have just clicked in their final gum consumption reports.

Of 2056 students, 520 chew one piece of gum a day. Twenty chew two and three pieces, making a total of 550 pieces consumed daily. Five hundred and fifty pieces of gum is equivalent to 110 packages, each package weighing two ounces, making a total of 13 pounds and 12 ounces.

This means that there are 2475 pounds of chewing gum consumed in a school year at Hamilton.

Were this gum stretched, it would circle the track 32½ times. This would greatly hinder track season and football games. Let us suppose this gum were melted and poured on the auditorium floor. It would easily cover the entire surface with two inches of gooey chicle. This would dampen aud calls and cause hard feeling.

Few if any realize that Hamilton sinks one-half inch into the earth annually, due to the excess weight of gum chewers. At this rate, Hamilton will be completely gone in 3600 years.

Help prevent this disaster. Wait till after school to chew gum.

Nosy Newscaster Says Touch Typing Wins Over 'Peck'

This is No. 2 in the series, "So You Want to Be a Reporter?" As a journalist myself, I know quite a little bit about the grind that any poor, struggling cub suffers daily.

After the facts and figures of a promising story are secured, a complete, detailed account of who, what, when, where, why, and how, must be written. Of course, if one has mastered the "touch system" of typing, this simplifies matters infinitely. If one is not familiar with this convenient method, there are two alternatives. Either peck out the words yourself or give it to some willing tool—if you can find one, that is!

When the masterpiece has been legibly typewritten, it is submitted to a copyreader. This individual makes grammatical, punctuation, and other obvious corrections and sends the news on its merry way to the printer.
—J. C.

— Just In Jest —

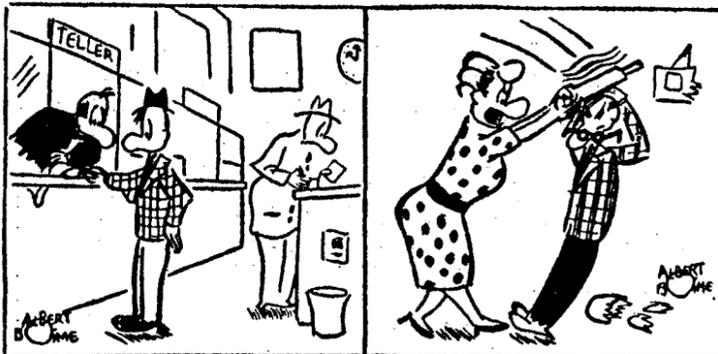

Pat Burns: "You brute! I'm sorry I ever married you!"

Bob Burns: "You oughta be—you cheated some nice girl out of a good husband!"

David Landy (at almond counter): "Who attends to the nuts?"

Cal Kurtzman: "Be patient, I'll wait on you in a minute."

Not This . . . and . . . Not This, But . . .

WHEN IS A BANK NOT A BANK? When it's in a newspaper, of course, where it means a headline. A "beat" is not always a slugging party—it may be the regular round of calls a reporter makes in gathering news.

Coming of Daylight Saving Time to Hami Brings Yawns, Dress Problems

It would seem that daylight saving time is a ticklish subject. From most of the people who were asked last Monday morning, "What do you think of daylight saving time?" there came either a sleepy sigh, a disgruntled yawn or a very blunt, "It stinks!"

Except for the fellow who expounded 10 minutes on how the change would help the farmer in his noble profession, the consensus of opinion was "nuts" to the farmer. Of course, the whole student body is not too lively bright and early Monday morning anyway and the time change is a handy excuse when it comes to telling your mother, "But Mom, it was only 12 o'clock, not 1, when I came in. We lost an hour, remember?"

The entire situation was summed up, however, by one not too bright student who said, "It was so dark this morning when I got up that it was third period before I found out that I had my levis on backwards!"

Orchids to You!

A hard worker since she came to Hamilton in the B9 from Culver City grammar school is this week's deserving winner of the orchid.

This Castilian girl has served in the House of Representatives, Plants and Grounds committee and has been on the Cafeteria service. She is a member of the Senior Service Society and has served faithfully on the Rally Committee and Girls' League Council.

Miss X was honored by the privilege of going to Girls' State in her A-11 semester and since then has done a lot of hard work for the Conutais.

By being on the Board of Promotions she soon worked her way up to being Secretary of Rallies, a First Lady, and a Nevian. Finally now as an A-12 Miss X has captured the honor of being chosen as an Epehbian alternate.

If by now you haven't guessed her name, please turn to the Sada's ad elsewhere.

Will you, Miss X, as the winner, please come to Room 114 during Period 5 today for a card entitling you to the orchid this week.

Four Yanks Pass Cal Tech Exams

After taking several written and oral examinations, all four of the Hamilton High School students who applied for entrance into Cal Tech, were admitted, it was announced last week. The four happy Yankees are Lynn Abbott, Danny Cathcart, John Goetten, and Paul Cramer.

U. C. L. A. also revealed last week the names of students who have received scholarships for the coming semester. Two from Hamilton are Gerald Brody and Pat Childress.

Joyce Cleave, Epehbian and Literary Editor of the Federalist, learned this week that she has won a $600 scholarship to Pomona College.

Penchef's Jewelry Class Displays Attractive Work

Now being shown in the shop display case is the handiwork of Benjamin Penchef's jewelry group. The class, now working in silver and copper, has made attractive trays, plates, pictures, bracelets, and rings. Some of the students' work is sold in Mr. Penchef's downtown craftsman's shop. For being such a newly organized class, they are turning out remarkable work, says Mr. Penchef.

Cadets to Get Awards For Service, Achievements

The Hamilton R. O. T. C. will hold its semi-annual Field Day, Thursday, May 11. Ten awards for outstanding service and achievement will be presented as follows:

The Reserve Officers' Association Award to the outstanding cadet of the Hamilton unit will be presented to Cadet Lt. Col. Jack Ferrucci; as well as the Honor Student medal to Ferrucci; the Citizenship Medal, awarded by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Culver City Post No. 1476, goes to Cadet Major Martin Shapiro; and Outstanding Service Award to the cadet displaying outstanding service to the school, to Cadet 1st. Sgt. Charles Wright.

News Briefs

By SUE SCHELLSTEDE

Miss Carol Dunlap and her Spanish classes viewed "The Madness of Love" or "Locara de Amor" at the Laurel theater last week. The film was the story of Queen Juana la Loca and King Phillip of Spain, and from the opinion of Miss Dunlap and her students, must have been very good.

Spanish classes seem to be making the news this week. Miss Dunlap's sixth period class spent last Monday playing charades about the novel they just finished reading. A rather unusual way to learn Spanish!

Some senior problems classes have been taking tests to determine their personality and emotional rate. The tests cost 30 cents apiece and are purely voluntary since they are conducted by a private group.

Hamilton Girl To Be Speaker At Session

The third annual Career Commencement Day has been slated for May 10 at the Biltmore Hotel. Vi Taylor, prominent Senior Aye, has been selected from all of the Los Angeles City Schools by a committee from the Business Education Department of the Board of Education to act as principal speaker of the day.

This day long conference session of senior high school commercial students is an opportunity for those students to learn about the various aspects of business, including different business careers, how to apply for and hold a job, how to dress, and how to conduct oneself.

Lunch at Biltmore—

Co-sponsored by the Board of Education and the Downtown Business Men's Association, the conference will include a luncheon at the Biltmore Bowl with many prominent business men, climaxed by a fashion show in the afternoon.

Students planned the event, will usher, introduce speakers and model in the fashion show.

Fashion Show—

Marjorie Lenz, fashion editor of the Los Angeles Times, recently conducted tryouts for boy and girl students interested in modeling for the conference. Three students selected to represent Hamilton include Carole Kohl, Dorothy Ahlman and Gerald Garber. Shirley Dobson, Nancy Atwood and Lavon Miesback will serve on the reception committee. Miss Anna Neft and 25 Hamilton students will attend.

A 1950 Deluxe model Royal portable typewriter will be given as the grand door prize in the drawing.

Mason Benner Out to Crack Shot Put Record

Western League Track Finals Slated This Afternoon at 2:30 L.A.'s Oval

Led by Mason Benner in the field events and Walt Whitman in the track events, Hamilton will have 15 men entered in today's Western League track and field finals at Los Angeles High School, beginning at 2:30 p.m.

Benner is expected to take Hamilton's only first place today in the shotput. He also will be out to crack the Western League shot put record of 52 ft. 6 in. which has been held since 1939 by Fries of Fairfax. Benner has an excellent chance to break this record because he already has achieved a toss of 53 ft. 5 1/2 in.

In the track events Walt Whitman led the qualifiers for Hamilton by taking first in his heat in the low hurdles in the time of 21.2 seconds and placing fourth in the high hurdles. Frank Zila is also in the high hurdles and Bill Adler is in the low hurdles. Norm Salisbury will carry Hamilton's colors in the 220-yard dash.

All three of Hamilton's relay teams are entered, with the Yank Bee relay team having the best chance. Stan Greitzer is entered in the 100-yard dash and high hurdles, and Bill McCormick in the low hurdles and 220-yard dash. For the Cees, Clyde Brooks will compete in the 100-yard dash.

Slatkin Shuts Out L.A.; Feds Go Into Second

Behind the brilliant four-hit, shut-out hurling of mound ace Jack Slatkin, Hamilton's hard-battling horsehiders gained a stronger hold on Western Loop second place in stopping L. A. 1-0 at the loser's home grounds, last Monday afternoon.

It was a one-run rally in the fourth stanza that ultimately proved to be the margin of victory for the homebreds in a hotly contested pitcher's dual between Slatkin and the Roman's pride, Al Litrov. In the top of the crucial inning, the Yanks put together two walks on L. A.'s miscue and a run scoring single by Dick Renner, to mark up the fray's lone counter.

Sexton Big Star

With dead-eyed guard Barry Sexton sparking them, the fast breaking, smooth-working Up-setters lived up to their name in dumping the reigning kings of noon basketball, the Noon Champs, from the first place spot they had held so long by a 21 to 12 score, last week.

An overflowing crowd of screaming basketball fans gazed in open mouthed wonder as Barry Sexton, a 5-foot, 8-inch sharpshooter, hit on three con-

Pride of Yankees

This week's 'Pride of the Yankees' title goes to a member of the mighty Western League runnerup gym team.

Getting off to a slow start this year, this 5-foot, 9-inch senior failed to take a single first in regular league competition, but gained confidence and experience steadily until he rose to the crest of brilliance, finishing his high school gymnastic career in a dazzling wave of agile grace. When he grabbed third in the all-league meet and a second in the city prelims topped by a fifth on the high bar in the city finals.

He has proved he can overcome handicaps, too, for last year in the first meet he broke both wrists while going through his difficult routine. Previous to that this red-headed, popular-plus gym ace picked up his letter in baseball.

Ray Sinetar's fine rebound work and snappy passing was largely responsible for his team's great showing. Along with guards Rich Murray and Barry Sexton, big Ray was constantly setting up two points for fast moving forwards, Larry Cohen and Rich Georgio.

Feds Get Fourth In City Gym Meet

Roosevelt High's gymnastic Roughriders rode to victory in the All-City gym meet at Manual Arts High School last Friday night. The mighty Teddies rolled up 23 1/2 points to far outdistance runner-up Fairfax's 14 1/2, which was followed closely by Fremont with 13 1/2, and Hamilton with 13.

The Yankee gymnasts gave by far the best showing of any school in the city, placing every man entered in the meet. John Klein, Jack Rich, Bob Garden, and Bob Morris came through brilliantly to nab five medals.

The Hamilton total came from Klein's second in free ex; Garden's third and fourth on the parallels, and high bar, respectively; Rich's third on side horse; and Morris's fifth on the high bar.
