Cotton Day Fete Celebrated Today

Cotton reigns today at Hamilton, for today is the annual Cotton Day. Besides cotton clothes, there will be a Cotton King, Queen, Prince, Princess, Duke and Duchess, and even Cotton Candy. The royal party was chosen this morning on the basis of their clothes. A duke and duchess, from the tenth grade, a prince and princess from the eleventh grade, and a king and queen from the twelfth grade will be honorary guests at the Cotton Ball and picnic tonight with a faculty king and queen.

Ice cream, cokes and cotton candy will be sold on the senior lunch court at noon. Verne Martin and the swing band will present a jazz concert, with something new added to the songs. The jazz feast will take place immediately following the crowning of the royal court. The six crowns were made by Miss Grace Haynes' design.

The Cotton Ball tonight will start at 8:30 in the cafeteria,

Top Journalists Attend Press Day

The S. C. School of Journalism played host to over 100 journalists from neighboring So. Calif. high schools on its 25th annual Newspaper Day last Saturday.

Visitors were welcomed with a full program of activities, including guest talks, presentation of awards, discussions, and the newspaper clinics which followed a delightful box luncheon in the school patio.

Highlighting the schedule was the awarding of the Crombie Allen Award, a much coveted honor which is given to the paper showing the greatest improvement. The "Centinela," Inglewood High's paper, captured the award with Hamilton's "Federalist" rating a close second. The "Lincoln Log" was third.

Winners of the U. S. C. journalism scholarships were introduced by Prof. Roy L. French. Ed Neilan and Annie Yip have arranged their programs for the fall semester. Tuition will be paid annually for four years if they do satisfactory work.

The morning program featured two guest speakers, both U. S. C. graduates.

A. Todd Watkins, publisher of four Owens Valley weekly papers, stressed four points required of a good newspaperman: (1) willingness to work; (2) ability to work with people; (3) business sense; (4) pleasing personality.

"Would You Like to Be a Women's Page Feature Writer?" was the talk given by Mary Ann Callen, writer, of the Los Angeles Times.

Attending from Hamilton were Mary Ann Black, Debbie Brandmeyer, Jim Hughes, Ed Neilan, and Mrs. Anne von Poederoyen, "Federalist" adviser.

HAMILTON HIGH SPONSORS THRIFT CAMPAIGN

The Thrift, Conservation, and School Savings section, in cooperation with the U. S. Treasury Department, is urging all students of Hamilton High School to support the Savings Bond Independence Drive. This drive started May 15, and continues through July 4, 1950.

The drive is symbolized by the fitting slogan, "Save for Your Independence." The quota

Senior Ayes Prove First Class Spellers

Results of Hamilton's recent senior spelling test have been revealed to the Federalist by Miss Nellie Vance Wilson, coordinator of curriculum. These tests were taken by A-12's throughout the Los Angeles city school system as a means of determining whether or not the present education system is teaching pupils the "three R's." Hamilton, as a whole, compared very favorably with the rest of the city. Out of 20 possible correct words, Hamilton averaged 17.3 compared with 16.7 for the entire city.

Three words proved to be the most difficult to spell. Hamiltonians missed "preferred" more than any other word. Second in the line of misspelled words was "extraordinary." These two words were reversed for the city as a whole. "Glimpse" was number three in both cases. "Comic" and "display" were the two words least missed. Only three Yankees misspelled these words.

Miss Wilson states: "We are proud of our students in this recent examination but not unduly surprised. We hope that classes in the future will rate as well as the present Senior Aye class."

Dads, Daughters to Dine, Dance at GAA Round-Up

The Hamilton G. A. A., under the guiding hands of Miss Anna Mae Mason, is presenting its annual Father and Daughter Banquet on Thursday, June 1, in the cafeteria at 6 o'clock. Members of the G. A. A will be on hand to show off their respective fathers.

The theme for this year's banquet will be western, with fathers and daughters showing up in their best levis and spurs. After the banquet, the fathers will swing their daughters to some of the regular old-fashioned square dance tunes.

Entertainment by talented members of the G. A. A. will add to the fun.

Each banquet table will be decorated in true western style by each grade level in the G. A. A. The grade with the most unique decoration wins a prize of a two-pound box of candy.

Orchids to You!

The orchid winner for this week is a Castilian girl. Her many activities and vivacious personality have won her the title of "most popular" in the Senior Aye class.

She has served long and hard on the Rally committee and worked up to the title of secretary of Rallies. She took complete charge of the card tricks during last year's night football games and did a wonderful job.

Being on the House of Representatives, in Charellles, a Lettergirl, A-11 class girls' vice-president, and on the Board of Promotions are only a few of her past jobs.

More recently Miss X has assumed the responsibilities of being a First Lady, a Nevia, a member of the Student Body Cabinet, an Ephebian, head of an important committee in the S.P.T.A. and Student Body president.

If you haven't guessed this Castilian girl's name by now, turn to the Sads' ad elsewhere in the paper. Will Miss X please come to Room 114 some time today and pick up a card entitling her to the orchid.

Hamilton High School Girls' Club Sponsors Honored at Informal Tea

Faculty and off-campus sponsors of all girls' clubs at Hamilton were honored at a tea, presented by Mrs. Gertrude Addison, the girls' vice-principal, and Miss Muriel Duncan, girls' league sponsor, in the teachers' cafeteria last Monday afternoon.

Such things were discussed as having a mothers' council behind each club to promote activities pertaining to the club. These councils would be similar to the mothers' clubs on university campuses. Dues, installations, and social affairs were also discussed. It is hoped that as a result of this meeting, the clubs will have a fuller and more active program next term.

Girls from Mrs. Haseltine Wyvell's home economics classes served the tea and fresh strawberry pies.

Choirs Combine Talent to Present Spring Musicals

"In the Spring a young Hamiltonian's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of . . . a Spring Musical!"

Topping off a year of hard work, Mrs. Martha Abbott is combining the talents of both her A Capella Choir and Aeolian Choir in a "Gay Nineties Revue" and "Dockstater Show," to be presented June 2 during a special assembly schedule.

First Ladies Reveal Newly Elected Members

The First Ladies, honor guard for girls of Hamilton, revealed last Wednesday the names of newly-elected members. From the B-12, 10 girls were chosen, including Mary Ann Black, Billie Jane Coulam, Luan Cramer, Mildred Falcinella, Jane Hunt, Bebe Marmer, Margie Parkins, Judy Reschetar, Claire Vargas and Claire Williams. Nine girls were selected from the A-11. Among them were Gloria Barsimantob, Shirley Harkins, Sally Hughes, June Jones, Marlene Purer, Lola Smythe, Myra Lee Spencer, Dixie Whipps and Betty Weiss.

At the close of each semester, a certain number of girls are chosen for their school service, leadership ability and character traits to become members of this outstanding organization.

Tops Breman In Heated Election Race

Hamilton's destiny during the coming semester will be in the hands of Marv Zigman, newly-elected student body president. Joining with Marv in guiding the Yank student government are Jean Hastain and Hyman Bass, newly-chosen Girls' League and Boys' League presidents.

Rounding out the list of student body officers are Cal Kurtzman, vice-president; Diana Boone, secretary; and Eugene Carr, treasurer. Two of those offices, that of vice-president and treasurer, were not decided until the final election, Wednesday. The primaries were held Monday. Marv defeated Ken Bremen in the finals.

Working with Hyman Bass in the Boys' League next semester will be Len Leopold, vice-president; Lanny Lewis, secretary; and Stan Bilchick, sergeant-at-arms. The Girls' League will be directed by by Shirley Harkins, vice-president; Sandy Koepp, secretary, and Betty Weiss, treasurer. The Boys' League secretary, and Girls' League president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer were not decided until the final balloting.

The student body installation will be held at a 4-A and B assembly, Wednesday. Boys' and Girls' League officers will be installed at a 4-A and B program, June 7.

This was the first election in which all three of the elections were conducted at the same time. With a total enrollment of approximately 1900, over 1400 Hamiltonians registered to vote.

Social Security Card A 'Must' for Workers

If you work, you'll want to be sure to get your Social Security wage credits. Those who have never had a Social Security card or who have lost theirs, should go to the Santa Monica branch at 1531 Third St., any week day between 9 and 5.

The story related by the "Gay Nineties Revue" is of a straying and wayward father in the 1890's who is turned from his erring pathway, good triumphing over evil.

Featured specialties and those who perform them are "Mother, Mother, Pin a Rose on Me" and "Little Brown Jug," by Bill Douglas, Eugene Carr, Dick Grimaldi, Steve Benson, Jim Mitcheltree, Martin Welch, Jim Mason, and Gretta Teeder as mother.

Other specialty numbers include "Thipping Thider Thru a Straw" by Marlene Jost and Jim Hughes; "Father, Dear Father," by Linda Harkins, Jo Ann Harris and Val Allan; "Bicycle Built for Two," with Bill Douglas and the A Capella Choirs' pin-up girl, Margie Vincent doing the peddling; the Preacher and the Bear" by Bill Bostater, Alan Bobier and Lynn (Continued on Page 3)

Cotton Day

Yankeeville's annual Cotton Day has arrived! Eagerly awaited by every Hamiltonian, the day to sport bright cottons is here at last.

The beaming faces of "Joe and Jane Hamilton," pictured above, adorn every bid for the Cotton Ball scheduled for tonight at 8:30 in the cafeteria.

For those few unfortunate femmes who haven't purchased their bids well in advance, tickets will be on sale at the door.

Dancing, entertainment, door prizes and refreshments promise a fun-filled time for every Joe and Jane at the Cotton Ball.

He's A 'Good Joe'—Our Joe Weston

A speedy recovery is wished to Joseph Weston, one of Hamilton's well-liked teachers, who is now in the hospital with a recurring lung infection. Dut to illness, he was out last month for two weeks and is not expected to be in school the remaining part of this semester.

On behalf of the students and faculty, the Federalist Staff would like to wish you a speedy recovery, Mr. Weston. We hope to see you feeling more "chipper" than ever next fall and with your same welcoming smile.

A Rose for Remembrance

By LEAH HANEY

A rose so robust, so red,
Tells the story of the dead.
From each trembling tip
To the last thorn on the stem.
It speaks of a battle lost at sea,
A sailor who gave to make us free.
Wars make warm hearts bleed—
Be this the price we need?
The bugle lifted in salute
To pay a soldier final tribute,
Or a prayer last spoken
O'er a dead one's grave;
The casket descending slowly
The wielding of a spade—
Another man laid to eternal rest
In the folds of nature's breast?
All this it does portray.
If only a rose could speak,
Each perfect petal would say:
'Remember the dead—Memorial Day.'

Graduation Message to Class of '50 from W. R. Laing, Class of '47

Dear Senior:

I graduated from a Los Angeles High School in 1947 looking to the future and looking for a job. Because I didn't know shorthand I became one of the many low paid office workers. Then I saw a Speedwriting ad. I investigated their claims and enrolled. Speedwriting was as easy to learn as the ad claimed. You see, I learned this ABC shorthand in just 6 weeks.

Upon completion of my training I was able to find a job with higher pay and better opportunities. Yes, the course of my future was changed by this 6 week Speedwriting Course.

It can do the same for you.

Good luck,
W. R. Laing

P.S.—For your information you may take a free trial lesson at Speedwriting Institute, 707 S. Broadway, Los Angeles. Phone TR. 1078 for the 6 week course that has placed thousands in the past 27 years.

— Overheard on the Campus —

Next Tuesday is Memorial Day, at which time Americans stop to decorate the graves of their beloved dead. Since Memorial Day is a holiday, Hamilton students will pay their tributes on Monday, a day earlier. This special program on the front lawn, is slated for the last 20 minutes of period II, and the entire student body may attend. Theme of the occasion will be the Unknown Soldier, and combined with it will be ceremonies commemorating Hamilton's own honored dead.

Although short in duration, the program will accomplish much. A talk about the Unknown Soldier is scheduled as the highlight of the program. Cadets of the R. O. T. C. will be present to raise the colors and will also render a rifle salute, honoring the dead. Hamilton's A Cappella Choir will sing the "Star Spangled Banner" and Student Body President Joan Long will preside.

The bus to the Naval Air Station, Los Alamitos, will leave from in front of school at 9 a.m. tomorrow, returning between 4 and 5 p.m. All young men 17 years or older are invited to visit this station and to investigate first hand the opportunities in the Naval Air Reserve.

For further information, see Eugene Broadwater, coordinator, TODAY.

"Some days it just doesn't pay to get out of bed!" That's what most Yanks expressed last Tuesday, when the bells and clocks failed to function all over Yankeeville.

Many opinions and excuses were offered, but Coach Patterson stated, "Apparently there has been a bell failure," which was a feasible explanation.

News Briefs By NANCY EARENFIGHT

From rags to riches, mud puddles to swimming pools, Hamilton now has a self-containing, cement and all, swimming pool. Although a long walk from the gym field, it is only a short distance by bus.

Coach "Bus" Sutherland, has made arrangements with the other coaches, so that a number of students each period, except sixth, can take a bus to Pico and Motor, where the pool is located.

The students will consist of non-swimmers, beginners, and advanced. The classes will also be limited to about 30 boys.

Many Yanks can be seen at the Dry lakes over the weekends nowadays. The trip proved unfortunate, however, for Rosie Fisher and Dick Dolan, W'50, last Sunday when they had a minor wreck in Dick's "Merc".

In bungalow 5, charts of quarterly algebra and geometry tests adorn the bulletin board. The charts have been kept by Miss Lucille Kellar ever since the school started.

Few Hamilton students are aware that they have a musically inclined principal, but the fact remains that Walker Brown was seen participating in a guitar "jam session" recently. Who knows what other talents are possessed by this versatile potentate?

Semi-Annual Senior Prom Slated for Friday, June 9

The semi-annual Senior Prom is beckoning all the seniors of Hamville. The Highlanders are presenting their Highland Fling, in the cafeteria on June 9, in honor of the Castilians of S'50. Their Scotch theme will be carried out in the decorations for the dance. The various committees are planning and working very hard for the coming event.

The prom committee, under the co-chairmanship of Cal Kurtzman and Mary Ann Black, is meeting every Friday at noon.

Abbott, (the bear's identity is as yet unknown); and, especially for the men, a Can-Can number via Mrs. Cole's dancing class, with Eileen Garber, Nancy McCollum, Marie Kalloger, Lorelle Crouse, Alice Curtis, and Darlene Alberts. The choir will be accompanied by Vern Martin's Senior Orchestra and by Peggy Fortenberry, choir pianist.

Following this, the Aeolian Choir will take the stage and present a genuine, old-fashioned Dockstater show.

The rollicking theme will be carried out by these performers: Interlocutor, Sam Wright; end men, Don Moore and Ken Breman. Numbers to be presented by the choir are: "I Got Plenty of Nothin'" with Bob Ohnemus and Eileen Garber, dancers; "Waiting for the Robert E. Lee," "Strutters Ball," "Gospel Boogie" with Ken Breman as the preacher, and "Kentucky Babe" with Mike Hoey, baritone soloist. Accompanist will be Peggy Fortenberry.

Special assistance is being rendered by Mrs. Mable Montague, staging; Mrs. Jean Cole, dancing; Miss Katherine Herring, stage sets; Miss Grace Haynes, costuming; W. Z. Smith, sound, and J. R. Smith, stage crew.

Winners of Alexander Hamilton High School's annual Photography Salon, as selected by noted Los Angeles photographers, were announced today by Mrs. Lois Vinette, salon sponsor.

Throng of visitors, approximately 1500 people, have jammed Shop I to see the outstanding pictures of 1950. The exhibit opened to the public on Wednesday, and remained open until today for students, teachers, and guests to visit.

Stenography Classes Take Civil Service Exams as Practice

Getting ready for a career in the world of stenography, are Mrs. Shirley Williams' senior stenographic classes. Civil service exams were given to the "future stenographers," four of whom passed the written part of the test. The lucky ones were Marjorie Coleman, Margaret Flink, Diane Infield, and Judith Lofchie.

The examinations were given in the stenographic classes, the oral interviews to take place later at Mt. Vernon Jr. High. Those who pass will be eligible for jobs as junior clerks in L. A. city schools.

Leading a group of photographers, who are said to include the best that Hamilton has ever produced, Gerald Rottner, 1949 Salon chairman and former Camera Guild president, was rated tops by the judges. Gerald's four winning pictures, chosen from among 143 outstanding photographs hanging in this year's salon, rated him two blue ribbons and two reds.

Close behind Gerald was the 1950 Salon chairman, Stan Haberman, second semester photography student, with one first and three second places. Earl Broce took third spot with two blue ribbons and one red, while Nick Stillwell was rated fourth with a first and two seconds.

The pictures were divided into four classifications, and each judge made his first and second choice in each group. Altogether the judges awarded 40 ribbons, and the fact that these were divided among 33 students, indicates the large percentage of outstanding photographs which are on exhibit in the salon.

Eight students divided the fifth and sixth positions. The three lensmen tying for fifth place with two firsts apiece were Mark Lees, John Leonis, and Monte Purcelli. In sixth position were Nanette Ives, Lorelei Larsen, Frances Licata, Bill Masters, and Alex Taylor with a red and blue ribbon each.

Judges of the salon included Ray Jones, of Universal Studios; Frank Fflan, president of Press Photographers Association; Fred Archer, of the Fred Archer School of Photography; Will Connell, photographic illustrator; and Dick Farrell, of the Daily News.

As a result of the exhibit, open to the public for the past three days, a ribbon will be awarded to the most popular photograph, chosen by ballot by the viewers.

HENRY
 HAMILTON HIGH
 FAR WESTERN JUNIOR
 SPRINGBOARD DIVING CHAMP

THIS TALENTED YOUNG LADY CAN CUT A NICE FIGURE ON WATER UNDER ANY CONDITION... SHE'LL SKATE ON IT, DIVE IN IT OR SKI ON IT.

Reading the Daily News, one begins to think that Hamilton is monopolizing the high school "Hall of Fame" selections; for not more than a month after Bob (gymnast) Garden was chosen a "Hall of Famer," another Yankee athlete has won that honor.

Paulette Henry, although not competing in any high school sport, because of her sex, has nevertheless caught the fancy of the downtown newspaper man, Mory Kapp, with her effortless diving form.

Paulette, the third girl to win "Hall of Fame" honors, is considered a sure bet for the 1956 Olympics, maybe the '52 games also.

Among the trophies on the Henry mantle, there are championships in Far Western Spring Board, S. P. J. three meter, 1945 J. P. coast diving and 1947, outstanding girl aqua-athlete in Santa Monica Water Carnival.

A talented girl, indeed, is Hamilton's Paulette Henry. Diving is not the only water sport in which Paulette excels; she is an excellent figure skater, and has worked in several Sonia Henie movie productions.

This Joan-of-all-Trades performed in a rodeo at the age of 3 as a "Cow-babe." Showing further versatility, Paulette entertained at various U. S. O. shows during the war by tap and ballet dancing.

With all these extra-curricular activities, Paulette still has time to pull down a straight "B" average.

Van Nuys' powerful Wolves handed the Hamilton Yanks their second straight Dorsey Tournament loss last week by an 8-3 count, to eliminate the homebreds from further competition this year. After a brilliant and unexpectedly fine baseball season, the Feds closed out the year rather drably by dropping last Saturday's tilt at Rancho Playground.

The rampaging Wolves pushed across half a dozen runs in the first two stanzas and coasted from there on in, adding a run in the fourth and another in the sixth inning.

The homebreds grabbed a fast one-run lead in the first frame when Ron Peyton and Don Moore put their singles together with a Van Nuys miscue.

In the third it was Glen Poston's homer that added another counter to the Yanks tally. Poston and Moore with a single each, along with a couple more Wolf errors, accounted for the scoring of the Feds' last run of the day in the fifth.

preliminary toss of 54 ft., 2 in. Big Benner could not quite reach his toss of 54 ft. 2 in., that he made in the city prelims, but these tosses count in the finals so he was tabbed the winner. Closest to Benner was Sherwin Sosnosky of Roosevelt High with a heave of 51 ft., 10 in. This first gave the only points won by Hamilton as Benner was the only Yank entered.

As for the rest of the high school events, Jefferson stole the show as usual by amassing a total of 110 points. Highlight of their win was their mile relay team that cracked the national high school record with a new time of 1:57.5.

Margaret Cull, Hamilton's outstanding girl trackster, in third position on the Holliston Lions' relay team and did well, as her team took third place.
