Sincerely Yours

By DONNA SEBRING
ONCE A WEEK

Well, here we are again, much to the surprise of many, with a Federalist once a week! Yes, the Fed is back on its feet, the cries of "Fed in the red!" are a thing of the past, and the Fed account books are filled with the nicest BLACK numbers I've ever seen in my life! (A short pause here, please, to uncross my fingers and knock on wood). If all following editions of the Fed are met with the enthusiastic support given to the first, (and a great big THANK YOU to every student and faculty member who helped make it such a success), shall unnailed my horseshoe, throw away my rabbit's foot key chain and set fire to my four leaf clover patch. Thanks again! BE AN ACTIVE YANKEE!

Recently while at a social wingding I was engaged in conversation with several Hamilton alumni. Someone mentioned that I must be a very busy girl this semester with so many activities, and went on to relate most of them. Suddenly I was eyed by said alumni with such intent curiosity that I began to search for a mirror, because if I had suddenly grown a second head or if my hair was slowly turning lavender, I for one didn't want to miss it! However, this new and morbid interest was soon explained.

"So Donna has become one of those school spirit characters!" one of them remarked sarcastically. Before I could utter a syllable, another continued, "Yea and for what? A few measly points! You can't take it with you!" he corned.

The term "school spirit character" stuck in my mind like some kind of food that couldn't quite be digested. I thought about our student body government and the hours they work trying to make Hami an even greater school, the Fed editors before me giving up their spare time turning out a paper the student body could be proud of, I remembered organizations like the Green Key club, First Ladies, Lettermen, Lettergirls, numerous committees and all the other service clubs, all working with the same ideas in mind. No, I don't mean service points. (Continued on Page 3)

Sgt. Frank A. Thomas To Assist Lt. Kanelis

Lieut. Tom Kanelis, of the Hamilton High School R.O.T.C. unit, has been lucky enough to receive a new assistant. Sgt. Frank A. Thomas, a recent veteran of the Korean situation, has been appointed to the R.O.T.C. staff. When asked the advantages of joining the unit, Sgt. Thomas replied:

"If R. O. T. C. is taken through high school and college, the aspirant may receive a commission in the U. S. Army."

The sergeant went to say, "The 110-man unit, which includes a 30-piece R.O.T.C. band, looks very promising this year."

Sgt. Thomas added that they were planning to start a competitive rifle team in the near future.

Hamilton became a model of Civil Defense in action on Thursday, Oct. 2, when the student body and faculty alike participated in an all-city drill designed to acquaint Los Angeles citizens with responsible procedure during a possible enemy attack. Not only were officials from Mayor Bowron's Civil Defense Committee on hand to witness how well Yanktown behaved, but photographers with movie cameras were busily recording it on film. This was no screen test for Hamilton, however. The entire drill was conducted with the utmost seriousness, after careful coaching in all classes.

Different procedure in each classroom threatened to complicate matters somewhat, but no mishaps were reported. When the drill was over, Hamilton breathed a sigh of relief, and went gladly back to its normal existence.

English Department Offers Opportunities

Attention, all budding writers!

Have you met Mrs. Ruth Stephens, English teacher in room 201? If you haven't, you certainly should!

Mrs. Stephens, as English department chairman, is in charge of all literary contests that are open to students of Hamilton high school. Hamilton students have consistently won national recognition for outstanding poetry, essays, and various other literary achievements.

Many students have had their work printed in "Flight," an Anthology of Student Verse. Among these promising people who are still in school are Dick Schoen, Tommy Horn, and Sally Stubbs.

Last semester recognition was received by Anne Osborn, for her poem, "Sunset," Ronald Miller, for "Reminiscence," Stan Bierman for "Symphony," and Carol Kragh for "Dawn." These winning poems were printed in the "California Anthology of High School Poetry."

Several contests are open to Hamiltonians right now. One of these is the National Essay Association contest. All essays are limited to 150 words, and must be in by November 5. The winners will have their essays printed in the "Anthology of High School Essays."

'Fed' Thanks School In First Issue Sale

The Federalist's thanks to all teachers and representatives who achieved such fine results with the sale of the first issue, which appeared last Wednesday. The following achieved 100 percent:

Teacher	Representative
Bettington	B. Niziblan
Clemenson	J. Lambert
J. Brown	Ivener
Dunlap	A. Edelman
Elliott	N. Baldrige
Friedman	G. Scott
McGrath	E. Gilbert
McQueen	J. Marks
Parker	S. Hammond
Stephens	P. Purer

The following had 90 percent or more:

Hokanson, Elmore & Saltzberg, 99; Clifton, M. Trude, 97; Mason, C. Lynn, 97; Snelson, Feldman, 95; Hadley, Schloser, 92; Johnson, L. Miller, 91.

Five more passed 80 percent.

They were: Blake, J. Sharples, 89; J. Weston, J. Davidian, 87; Silver, E. Bellmore, 87; Gaustad, H. Ackerman, 81; M. Smith, B. Stelner, 81.

Since the records of sale were not always complete, the Federalist apologizes in advance if any class is omitted, which should be included.

The Civil Defense Committee at Hamilton had been preparing for the drill far in advance, and was responsible for its final completion. Andrew Silver is the sponsor of this group, and Don Allen is the student supervisor.

Orchids to You

"Mr. X", this week's orchid winner, began his active career at Hamilton in the ninth grade.

Blessed with a wonderful voice, he was claimed by the Aeolian choir, and soon became the choir's vice-president. Later his musical added to A Capella. He has been with this outstanding choir for four semesters, and is now the vice-president. Music is not his only interest, however, for he has been on the football team four seasons. Now he is left tackle on the first string varsity squad. A two-year letterman, Mr. X is also vice-president of the Letterman's Club.

Mr. X, is more than just a singing football player! He has proven himself outstanding in other fields, for he is the sergeant-at-arms of the Green Key Club.

To round out his interests, Mr. X became politically-minded and for five semesters has been a member of the House of Representatives. This semester the representatives voted him parliamentarian of the House.

It's obvious by now that Mr. X is deserving of the orchid award! If you haven't already guessed who this friendly, ambitious Triton is, look elsewhere in the Fed for the Sada ad.

Hami Hosts PTA Univ. Council

Hamilton presented its student government to the University Council of the P.T.A. on Wednesday, Oct. 6, when that group held its meeting in the auditorium and heard six students discuss the topic, "Hamilton's Student Body Government and the Place of the S.-P.-T.-A. in It."

The council is composed of executives from 10 P.T.A. organizations in the Los Angeles area, and this is the first time that they have met at Hamilton in several years. Those participating on the panel were chosen for their interest and ability in student affairs; they included Chris Brieseth, representing the S.-P.-T.-A.; Charlene Lacey, representing the executive branch of the student cabinet; Gary Jacobs, speaking for the judicial branch; Irwin Jacobs, the legislative branch; Barbara Levinson, the leagues, and Sonia Wakefield, the participating branch.

All phases and functions of student government were covered by this group, and the large audience appeared impressed by their evident knowledge. This is the first in a series of such talks that will be given by Hamiltonians to various organizations in the community.

Trifons Invade Hami In New Blue Sweaters

The members of the Triton class have officially invaded Yankeville, now that they have formally presented their class sweaters of blue and gray. Marching behind a Triton banner the senior class of Hamilton displayed their sweaters last week to other Yankees. Singing the Triton song along their way, the mighty class paraded from behind the girls' gym to the cafeteria, then out to the lunch court, a glorious sea of royal blue.

The active Triton class is looking forward to a wonderful last semester at Hamilton, under the leadership of Dick Brown, president, and Mrs. Alice Andre, sponsor.

Drill Team Clad In New Outfits

The great news is out—the girls in green and white who have earned the reputation of being one of the finest drill teams in the city, will be wearing new outfits this year.

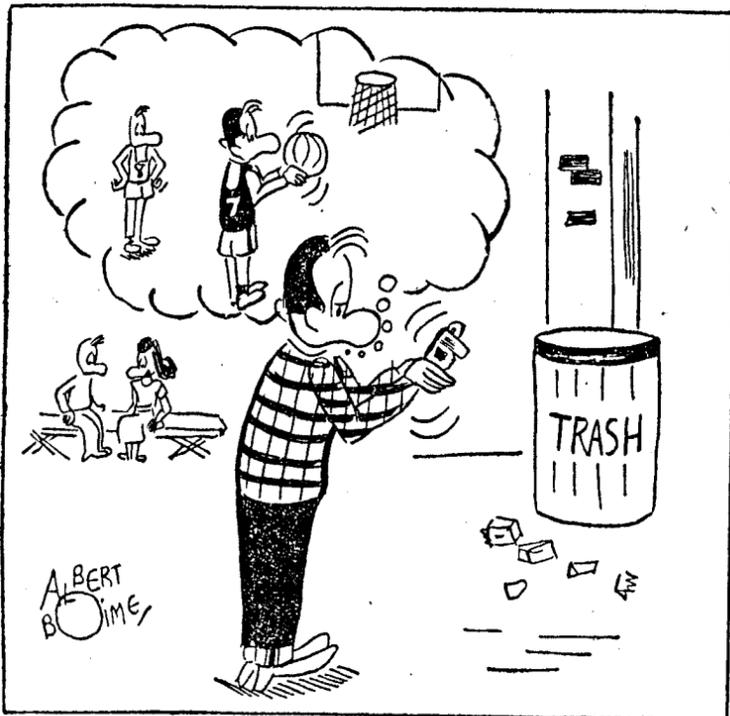

For some time the drill team has been planning new uniforms and this season will be the first showing of them.

The outfits have green pleated skirts, white jersey tops and green beanies. White joyces and bobby socks will complete the outfit.

Green and silver will be the pom-pom colors at the Milk Bowl and green and brown will be used at the games.

The first drill of the season will be at the Milk Bowl. The drill team will also drill at all the league games of the season.

The outfit will be sponsored by Mrs. Jean Cole.

Don't Be A Lunch Court Hoopster

The problem of sloppy grounds once again arises. This age-old situation not only exists in our school, but also in almost every other school in the city.

The administration of Hamilton, although not willingly, had to start a fifth period clean-up program. Yes, we know you don't like it, but it appears to be the only way to cope with the problem.

This little plan helps solve the immediate problem, but it should not be necessary. It is no effort to drop rubbish into one of the many garbage cans on our grounds, and in case you've forgotten, the slaves were freed by Mr. Lincoln in the Emancipation Proclamation. You haven't anyone to follow you around and collect the trash you throw away.

So don't forget, Yanks, let's uphold the fine reputation you've given Hamilton in so many ways and keep the grounds immaculately clean.

Politically Speaking...

Do you like Ike or are you glad for Adlai? That is the question of the B11 United States history classes. Of course, no one tells whom he is really for, but opinions frequently come out in the debates and discussions.

"When voting for a presidential candidate, it isn't just as easy as saying "eeny, meeny, miney, moe," and then putting down an X. Some do not realize that to choose a candidate intelligently, one must study and find out all the information he can, listen to the speeches, read the newspapers, listen to the radio, and learn public opinion. We should also find out about former experience in political matters, personality, and what bills the candidate is for, and against. The preceding ideas are suggestions of some of the B11 United States history classes.

It is said that Chris Breiseth, a B11, is helping the party of his choice. He has gone from house to house finding out who has not registered; then he asks if they are of his party. If they are, he sends a registrar to the home of the unregistered citizen. Many Hamiltonians have joined the Junior Republican or the Junior Democratic parties.

Let's remember all of us will be voting in future presidential elections and that it is a privilege and a duty. Talk to many people of knowledge and experience and listen to both sides. You will find that a cultivation of political interest will prove helpful and necessary as you progress in life. Start now to prove yourself worthy of the tremendous job ahead of you, the job of choosing our country's leaders.

A demonstration of portrait lighting is on the agenda for the Camera Guild meeting tomorrow after school in the photo shop.

Gene Moriarty, instructor in the cinema department at U.S.C. and representative of the Anso Company, will speak and give the demonstration. All members are invited to attend.

THE AMERICAN WAY

By CAROL BABIOR

I am a beat in the heart of America,
 I can be any person,
 I can own a home on any street,
 Work anywhere,
 And live a free life
 The right way,
 The good way,
 The American way.

Four words tell the needs of each human being,
 Of any race,
 Of any color,
 Or creed.
 These are
 Life, love, work, play.

If we take this as our responsibility,
 We too can help,
 And some day make it possible
 To live in a world
 Of joy, of peace and of brotherhood.

Letter to Editor

Dear Editor:
 I am writing this to warn all of you to stop and think before you start any type of machinery or automobile in or out of school. Believe me when I say I'm speaking from experience as I had to learn this the hard way! During summer vacation I had my hand badly cut in an accident that could have been avoided if I had only looked before starting my automobile. Doesn't it sound ridiculous to say stop and think before starting a simple machine like an auto, but if I had done just that I wouldn't be scared now.

Last year in our own school there were three or four accidents, one of which was serious. Just one small act of carelessness may cause a great deal of harm, so why don't we make it a point to overcome all possibilities of accidents, by just remembering that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.

Yours sincerely,
Peter Banks, B12.

What's Cookin'

By WANDA FRY

COUPLE OF THE WEEK...

Winning the honors of "Jack and Jill" for this week are two prominent members of the Senior Bee class. Both entered Hami in the B10 after graduating from Louis Pasteur. "Jill" is active in many school affairs and has been a hard working student. She has been on the Girls' League since the B10, a Nevian, a member of the Ushers Club, Publicity Committee, Election Committee, House of Representatives, and on the Drill Team. At the present time she is in the Chatelaines, Speaker of the House, and a First Lady. "Jack" is No. 35 on the football squad, worked on the Boys' League in the past, and is a member of the Service Club. This couple, seen constantly together, have long deserved the title of "Couple of the Week." They

Nonsense

By BERKELEY MEIGS

I am me
 And you are you.
 But, pray tell,
 Who are we two?

To you, you're me;
 But so am I
 To me, you see...
 Oh, dear, why try?

It's so confusing,
 Don't you know?
 And now I think
 It's time to go!

Did You Know That?

Compiled by Harvey Zweig

Did you know that Mr. Haig Koobation's bright red shirt faded and was ironed on the wrong side. He now has a brighter new one... Nine Hamiltonians hiked 130 miles from Sierra Madre to Lake Arrowhead this summer. Those making the trip were Mervyn Shapero, Bernard Cohen, Leonard Katz, Aaron Cohen and alumni Jerry Katz, Don White, Fred Kingsdale, Dick Shapero and Skip Nevel... Coach Rebd was a chief petty officer in the Navy... Ed Du Puis, second string fullback has broken his nose three times during three football seasons... Girard Bower went albacore fishing six times this summer and all he caught was a cold. Me too!

If you have any information you would like in this column, please drop it in the Fed mailbox outside room 114 or see the writer.

Yankee Blow-by

By Dick Schoen

According to "blow-by" around the Clock Drive-In in Culver City, the Vigilantes are really "running on eight". They returned en masse, from the Saugus Sunday drags with a trophy and a second place. Joe Harkey's roadster brought home the bacon with a rousing 91 m.p.h. (¼ mile). Vance Olsen's storming sedan turned 85 to take a close and much disputed second.

If Dick Wareham's coupe meets expectations and Ron Scrima's modified roadster becomes a reality, it seems that they too may be added to the ranks of that up and coming car club.

No More Dragging . . . It Costs Money

The gutty roar of an old fashioned drag down some dark street may be blotted out by the wail of a pursuing police siren, since the gendarmes have started cracking down on illegal street racing.

New teeth in an old, formerly unused law makes possible—and very probable—a $50 fine or five days in Juvenile Hall. Even being a spectator to one of these rubber-burning sessions is likely to cost you a trip to the local precinct until your parents come and retrieve you. Or if you take off over a fence and leave your car there, you'll end up retrieving it for it will be impounded.

It all adds up to the fact that a go-through-gears just doesn't pay anymore. So if there's still that hot '40 Ford around that you just have to beat, invite him to "drag it out" the next weekend at Saugus. For a buck and a few miles drive, you can race till you beat him or blow up. And your rods can rattle and pipes roar like thunder with a state cop smiling at you all the while. To top it off, you'll return home after a day of fun, show off a week in the jug.

Slow Approaching

The date for the Second Annual Hot Rod Jamboree is now officially set for November 26. Besides great prizes, there will probably be pictures in local papers and national magazines. Read the next issues of the Fed for more details.

Yankee Spirit Soars

There goes the gun! The second quarter is over! A mighty roar arises from the home team's stands! The team trots proudly to the sidelines.

The great enthusiasm of the Mighty Yankee rooters catches fire to the team and further magnifies their desire and determination to win!

Support this year's games!
GO AND GET 'EM, YANKS!

Jr. Philharmonic Elects Officers

Under the leadership of their sponsor, Mrs. Pauline Bogart, the Jr. Philharmonic has planned a busy semester. The first event of the semester was the installation of new officers, who are president, Lou Buckner; first vice-president, Chris Breiseth; second vice-president, Ken Wells; recording secretary, Ann Goffman; and sergeant-at-arms, Aaron Goldberg.

Included in the full program for the coming weeks are a theater party, and the semi-annual Jr. Philharmonic concert, which will be an event open to the community.

JOKE OF THE WEEK

Coach Reed: Did you take a shower this morning?

Nails: Why, no! Is there one missing?

'SUMMERTIME'—prize picture taken by Jake Provonsha, was awarded a $300 first place in the National High School Photographic Awards this summer. Jake showed appreciation for the instruction he has received by purchasing a Weston exposure meter with his prize money, and presenting it to the Hamilton Photo Shop. (Cut Courtesy C. C. Evening Star-News.)

L. A. McMillan Gives Accordion to Hami

Hamilton has been given a valuable Italian made bass accordion, announces Walker Brown, principal.

The accordion was presented to Hamilton by Assemblyman Lester A. McMillan of the 61st District. The accordion formerly belonged to Mr. McMillan's son, Byron, who graduated Hamilton with the class of W'47. Byron is now serving with the United States Air Corps and is stationed in North Carolina.

Assemblyman McMillan's wish was to place the accordion in a place where it would be put to its best advantage. Hamilton was very fortunate to be chosen for this purpose.

Want? Sell? Buy? Advertise in Fed

The Federalist is now accepting from the Student Body classified ads, such as "Hot Rod for sale, cheap, in good shape," or "Letterman's sweater for sale," or "Want to rent series of Mrs. Davis' tests, or fail." Anything you want to sell, we will try to sell for you. The cost will be only 25 cents for a maximum of three lines. Please notify Paul Klein in the Fed office, Room 114, Per. V.

SINCERELY YOURS — By Donna Sebring

Take the service points away and you'd still have these groups supported to capacity! Why?

I can tell you two good reasons myself. (And there are many more). The first is very practical; simply a school is as good as what you put into it! (Sound familiar?) The second is something that few of us realize; we're growing up! (And I don't mean because you happen to be six-foot-four and can tear phone books in half, that mental process taking place that is slowly doing away with the "me, myself, and I" attitude and submitting a new point of view which radiates a wonderful feeling when you have helped a friend, teacher, or maybe the whole student body, in some way.

Well, I took a deep breath, and was about to explain this (determined to have a few alumni converts before the night was over) when it suddenly dawned on me that I'd just be wasting my breath. These boys were alumni, who had unfortunately gone through school and graduated with this grim point of view. Too late to straighten them out, but not too late to mention to all you new Yanks, who are afraid of being called "school spirit characters."

Remember, my alumni friends were also wrong in their convictions that "You can't take it with you," because you can. Whether you leave Hamilton for college, business, or marriage, you may take with you the satisfaction of a job well done, the responsibility and experience you will need as a worthy citizen, and the memories of it all shared with your friends. Remember there's no fun in being an IN-active Yankee!

THIS AND THAT

I'd like to extend my very best wishes to the Triton class W'53, for a term full of great accomplishment and fun . . . There seems to be many new interest clubs this semester, so whether you collect rocks, get a kick out of photography, or have any other favorite hobby you should be able to find a club at Hamilton to suit you and your interests. . . I'd like to set up a loud cheer right now for Bill Silverthorn and our great Yankee football team . . . (and for the student body that turns out to support them!) . . . Hope you've noticed the great variety the Fed is turning out this term; from poetry to hot-roads, that's our motto!

TILL NEXT TIME

That's about all for this issue, from yours truly.

"Aequians" Club Invites Members

Veni, vidi, vici.

If you know your Latin, you know that these famous words were spoken by Caesar after crossing the Rubicon river in Germany. And if you know Latin, chances are you are taking or have taken Latin as a class. If this is the case, you are eligible to join Hamilton's Latin club, the Aequians.

This long-established club at Hamilton is under new sponsorship this year. Miss Catharine McGrath, Latin teacher, has returned to Hamilton after 18 months' absence and is in charge of the club.

The meetings are held at noon and are announced in the March of Events. At the next meeting, this term's officers will be elected and plans made for the semester's activities.

Cole Facts

By LARRY COLE

What's happened to the Yank eleven seems to be just what the doctor ordered for the past few seasons. The squad has boosted its rating among the large city newspapers from a bottom rung spot to the third post in the Western League. With the loss of Dick McMinn, the Bankers' hopes have been dimmed somewhat, but, in spite of this, the team's morale still will saddle them on a high spot in both playmanship and sportsmanship.

Ben Lebarsky, Fairfax gridder, has joined the ranks of Yanktown but is ineligible, due to the rule that all transferring athletes are ineligible during the first season of attendance. Ben could have become an important asset to this year's squad having been a Letterman on the Colonial squad: Ben played first string left guard and was considered a potent part of the Colonial defense.

What happened to Poly Hi in the Varsity scrimmage last week may turn out to be the fate of many others of the Yanks' future opponents. The Bankers' win, which was by one touchdown, added to the team's already high morale. Let's hope it stays this way. With the squad as full of determination as they are, it no doubt will.

Not much response to last week's "Sports Quiz" so we're trying to make it a little more attractive . . . a free ticket to the next Yank football game. Maybe it's just that you don't know your past athletes.

Aside from putting your answers in the Fed mail box, how about throwing in a few stumpers to be used in the column? The Fed mail box is right outside of room 114.

One of the finest turnouts to minor sports has brightened the Cross Country and Tennis teams' chances of coming up on the top of the pile is this season's meets Hamilton, which usually is short of material for the minor sports, now has an abundance of fine looking athletes.

Coach Bill Crow of the Cross Country team looks to a high place in the Western loop after having their first practice meet with Loyola last Thursday. The squad backed by many returning lettermen, is also being paced by many new men out for the leatherlunged sport.

Also in the limelight of the "minor sports" is tennis, which may be boosted somewhat by the addition of Richard Miller as coach.

Pride of The Yanks

This week the "Pride of the Yankees" goes to one of the most important men in Bill Silverthorn's "T" formation football squad.

Mr. X is one of Hamilton's great competitors. He has been a varsity Letterman for some time now, for he has been very active in sports since coming to Yanktown from junior high.

Lettering in both varsity baseball and football, he had to do quite a lot of thinking; in fact, his thinking in either game may mean a win or loss. He plays quarterback in the "T" formation or left half playing the single wing.

This year he was first string actcher and was quite a big man with the stick. Also Bill Silverthorn has rested upon him first string quarterback, and in a T formation he is the big man to watch. To show what the boys think of him, he was made co-captain of the squad.

He is a hustler and sets a fine example of good sportsmanship. This week we are happy to give the "Pride of the Yankees" title to Mary Sampson.

Sports Quiz

By Ralph Luckerman

This week we again dedicate the entire sports quiz to former Yankee gridgers. This week the person who brings in the correct answers, will not only get his or her name in the paper, but get a free ticket to one of the next grid games.

Last week's winner was Bob Cunningham. Congratulations. Who knows maybe you might be the lucky winner this week?

Here are the correct answers to last week's sports quiz.

1. Ed Demirjian played at Muir.
2. The boy who became all-city for Hamilton in W'52, was Jim Salsbury.
3. The Yankees tied the Jefferson Democrats — a game which completely surprised the Democrats.
4. We sent the Romans to the Milk Bowl. Maybe they can return the compliments.

Here Are This Week's Stumpers

1. When the Bankers played Beverly, what was the score and who won?
2. Who was last year's captain's award given to?
3. Last year what lineman on the varsity grid squad took almost every award?
4. What team scored the most total points during last year's football campaign? San Pedro, Jefferson, or Hamilton?

Please get your answers in as soon as possible, to the Federalist office, room 114. Here is your new rating, including last week's quiz: 8. excellent. 7. terrific; 6. good; 5. lucky; 4. fair; 3. poor; 2. terrifying; 1. a complete failure. O-how ridiculous!

Results of the first practice against North Hollywood were as follows:

BEAT BELL!

Feds Feature Veteran Squad

Helix-Hami; 6-6

Ending in a 6-6 deadlock with a game Helix squad, the Yanks started their practice season with a display of power last Friday night at San Diego State College.

The Greenbacks' touchdown is attributed to the 35-yard gallop by Paul Martin, who also made a 45-yard touchdown run, only to have it called back on a penalty. The defense was sparked by Johnny Schirmer from last year's Jay Vee squad. The Helix touchdown was made by a desperation pass in the last 15 seconds of the game.

This Friday on the Yank homeland, the Bankers will meet Bell in a game which promises to be a thriller. Game time, 3:00.

Netmen Begin Practice Season

Coach Richard Miller is exceptionally happy with the turnout of boys for tennis.

"Many B10's show interest in the sport, and have a lot of promise as racketeers," states the new coach.

Determining who is to play in matches is done according to a player's position on the "ladder." This ladder is broken under two headings, singles and doubles. Men are listed according to their ability, with the first string in singles being made of the top five, and of the top two in doubles.

A player may move up the ladder by challenging and beating a fellow netman not more than five rungs ahead of him. If a player refuses a challenge, he automatically loses his place to the challenger.

The first practice of the season was held Oct. 1. On this day, the ladder stood:

- Singles
1. Singer; 2. S. Rosenfield; 3. Wilkinson; 4. Lavine; 5. Solton; 6. D. Rosenfield; 7. Hancy; 8. Osterbach; 9. J. Harris; 10. M. Harris; 11. Beran; 12. Miller; 13. Wendell; 14. Edelson; 15. Gilbert; 16. Lewin; 17. Binder; 18. Gale; 19. Neiter; 20. Allen; 21. Stockwell; 22. Diamond; 23. Cooper; 25. Gill; 26. Wolfe; 27. Brody; 28. Satin; 29. Babcock; 30. Ivenir; 31. Lipson; 32. McDowell; 33. Shapiro; 34. Finestone; 35. Zaccarini; 36. Gealer.

- Doubles
1. J. Harris, M. Harris.
 2. Lewin, Stockwell.
 3. Wendell, Beran.
 4. Miller, Babcock.

Results of the first practice against North Hollywood were as follows:

- Singles:
- Norman Singer vs. Al Driscoll, 6-4, 6-4.
 - Sheldon Rosenfield vs. Ted Voyvodick, 8-10, 0-6.
 - Ward Wilkinson vs. Gary Eiler, 7-5, 5-7, 1-6.
 - Dick Lavine vs. Bud Sprague, 5-7, 6-3, 5-7.
 - Bob Solton vs. Jim Kaswell, 3-6, 3-6.
 - Dave Rosenfield vs. Charles Stone, 6-3, 6-3.
 - Ronnie Mallut vs. Driscoll, 6-2, 6-4.
 - Hamilton 3, North Hollywood 4.

Yankee Bees Bow to Poly

The Yankee Bee football team opened the new season with a scrimmage at Polytechnic High School on Tuesday of last week.

Coach Walt Parker has 54 boys out for the team this year, among them seven returning Lettermen from last year. Mr. Parker says that the defensive team is working fine, while the offensive unit seems a bit weaker. The Bees' head mentor has been trying the two-platoon system for the first time.

Among the returning men from last year's squad are: Ken Katz, Howard Black, Irvin Robinson, Harlan Cohen, Bob Olson, Joel Berman, Charles Allerd, Hylton Soccer, Bill Stevenson, Chris Zukel, Bob Frappia, Nubar Prudian and Hank Schultz. At the scrimmage Tuesday Mr. Parker used almost his entire squad giving the great number of rookies and veterans their first contact with another school. As two new boys to Hamilton's squad put it, "Boy, they were plenty rough."

As Mr. Parker states it, "Our team is being sparked by the ultimatum in quarterbacks, Hank Schultz. Calm, cool, and collected Hank, even when he's thrown for a 20-yard loss!"

Girl Athletes Start Season

This year the G.A.A. welcomed one of the largest turn outs in many a year. 160 girls participated in the opening activities.

It looks as if Kay Harkins will be having a very successful semester as president. Serving on the cabinet with Kay are Punky, Dartt, vice-president; Diane Carpenter, recording secretary. Donna Sebring, treasurer.

The cabinet was hard at work planning activities even before the semester began. The first activity of the G.A.A. was their annual volleyball game between the B10 girls from Palms and Pasteur Junior High. Each semester the new members take part in this activity. The Lettergirls officiated as referees and afterwards enjoyed refreshments. Both teams played very well and there may be many prospective Lettergirls in the future.

Cheering the girls on to victory each Monday and Wednesday nights will be Punky Dartt, Dortha Brown, and Kay Saunders, newly elected cheer leaders for the G.A.A. The girls' first official duty was to welcome the new girls and lead all members in a number of cheers and the G.A.A. song.

Future activities of the G.A.A. will include a picnic and a Mothers' Tea at the end of the semester. G.A.A. parties have also been planned for the rest of the year.

Team Shows Top Form

With six lettermen returning to the first string, Hamilton is looking forward to its first victorious season in several years.

Coach Bill Silverthorn, the new head coach, will throw an almost complete Twelfth grade team at his opponents in an attempt to get his team into the top three, in what may be the strongest Western League many years.

Led by the brilliant Marv Sampson, the Yankee backfield will be all Tritons. Sampson is a very capable passer, expert ball handler, and fine signal caller.

Ed Lafferty at halfback is as good a speed runner as there is in the league. Ed has speed to burn and is a top notch pass defender.

Glen Poston at left halfback is inexperienced but has shown plenty of drive; he is fast and shifty and should be quite an asset to the team.

Paul Martin at fullback is the power. Paul is rough, tough and has plenty of weight and speed that makes a real good fullback.

Gary Peterson, at left tackle, and his running mate, Gene Cummings, at left guard, are standouts; there'll be little yard age gained through the left side of the Yankee line with those two Tritons plugging it up.

Don Hazard and Kenny Lewis are right guard and tackle respectively. Hazard is one of the fastest guards in the league; Lewis is inexperienced as far as offense goes, but he knows way around when the other team gets the ball.

The center slot will be occupied by Ronnie Barback. Barback is big, and he moves well, but he is still unused to the position.

Larry Schrock and Bob Orman will man the wing spots. Both are very capable pass receivers and good blockers, but both are slow.

On September 30, Hamilton scrimmaged Polytechnic at Hamilton. The Feds knocked off their foes one touchdown to nothing and looked good doing it. Paul Martin scored the only touchdown on a 70-yard dash off right guard and tackle.

Martin gained time and again through center, as did Lafferty off tackle and around end. Sampson passed and faked beautifully although he was given little time to throw.

Gene Cummings intercepted two Poly passes and made innumerable tackles. Leon Dupuis, John Schirmer and Roy Etychison of the second string handled themselves very well against Poly.

The team looks good, there's a new coach and he's a good one. Support your team—they play for YOUR school.
