World Without Cats
a novel by Bonham Richards
(Pen-name of Richard Goodman W'56)

A devastating viral disease attacks housecats in Southern California. The contagion spreads rapidly throughout the world, threatening Felis catus with extinction. Veterinarian Vera Barnett and her lover, molecular biologist Noah Chamberlin collaborate in seeking a cure. Will the domestic cat, a species that has lived as our companions for more than 10,000 years, become extinct? How will humans be affected? What's it like to live in a world without cats?
